

READING AT HOME

while learning at home

Use the resources below to read and listen to books for free.

CHECKOUT BOOKS FROM LMS' LIBRARY

Students can borrow books from the LMS library. For more information, click here.

ARC BOOKSHELF

Students regularly use the ARC bookshelf to look for reading material. This can be found on the ELA teacher's Google Classroom or using this link.

EPIC

Many teachers created EPIC accounts for their students to read and listen to books online at home. Ask your teacher for the code and begin reading!

Spotify Audiobooks

Spotify has a playlist full of audiobooks. If students have an account, they can click on the title of the book they want.

WEST CHICAGO PUBLIC LIBRARY

The public library offers free digital library cards during eLearning. This card can be used to borrow physical books, ebooks, and eaudiobooks. Click here for more information.

Audible & Apple Books

During eLearning, Audible is offering free books and audiobooks in eight different languages. Click here to access the titles.

The Apple Books app also has free ebooks in their "Book Store." Under the "Browse Section" choose "Free Books."
